

PREPARE ENRICH.

4 Premarital Sessions (8 hours)

TWOGETHER IN TEXAS

The state of Texas has begun a program called “Twogether in Texas,” and Marry Me Brandon has been approved to provide pre-marital counseling in this program. The desire of this program is “to build a community where marriage is valued and strong families can contribute to the success of the great State of Texas.” As an approved program we are able to give you a certificate of completion that can provide a deduction of $60 in your marriage license fees.

You will receive the certificate upon completion of the program.

WHY IS PREPARE/ENRICH RIGHT FOR YOUR RELATIONSHIP?

Increases Awareness

The results of an assessment provide insights to your relationship. Research has shown the act of taking the P/E assessment improves relationship quality and brings increased awareness across multiple aspects of the relationship.

Assesses Your Relationship

P/E covers various areas within the relationship including communication, conflict resolution, finances, and spiritual beliefs. In addition, the assessment will explore your personality, family of origin, and relationship dynamics. Over 30 customized categories, such as previous marriage and expecting a child, ensure your experience with your results will feel accurate and relevant to your relationship.

Reduces Your Risk for Divorce

Research has shown that taking the P/E assessment prior to marriage reduces your risk for divorce by 30%.

Encourages Discussion

P/E will help you celebrate your strengths as a couple and use them to gain momentum in the growth areas of your relationship. The assessment primes you to have meaningful conversations as you continue to grow as a couple.

Enhances Your Relationship Skills P/E provides skill-building exercises to help you strengthen your relationship. Developing skills such as assertive communication and active listening will allow you to support growth in all areas of your relationship.

IS THIS A TEST?

No, we promise it is not a test. It's an assessment of your relationship across several categories.

WHAT DO WE DISCUSS?

Session 1: Assessment review/Communication

Session 2: Stress/Conflict

Session 3: Finances/Relationship Roles/Family

Session 4: 3 Areas of Intimacy/Personality Dynamics

MARRYMEBRANDON.COM